IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICITON

WRIT PETITION NO.6362 OF 2006

Shri M.H. Patel .. Petitioner.

Versus

The C.I.T. XXIV (A) and another .. Respondents.

Mr.M.H. Patel, petitioner in person.

Mr.A.D. Kango for the respondents.

CORAM : H.L. GOKHALE, &
J.P. DEVADHAR, JJ.

DATED : 25TH SEPTEMBER, 2006.

P.C. :

1. The appeal filed by the petitioner concerning A.Y. 2003-2004 is being heard by the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals). By his application dated 19th September, 2006 the petitioner has sought to produce certain documents. He is appearing in person in this Court and making grievance that he is not permitted to produce those documents.

2. Mr.Kango is present for the respondents. There is no reason why the petitioner should not be permitted to produce the documents which he is relying upon. Thereafter, the CIT (Appeals) will decide whether they are relevant or not and according dispose of the appeal.

3. The writ petition stands disposed of in terms of this order with no order as to costs.
